ENDLESS BELTS

SMILEY MONROE IS THE NUMBER ONE SUPPLIER OF HIGHLY CUSTOMISED ENDLESS CONVEYOR BELTS ACROSS OUR BELT CONVEYING WORLD. PARTNERING WITH THE MOST PRESTIGIOUS EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS GLOBALLY, WE PRODUCE MORE THAN 600KM OF CONVEYOR BELT EVERY YEAR. THAT'S ENOUGH TO STRETCH FROM LONDON TO PARIS.

We supply OEM customers across ten equipment sectors including Quarrying, Recycling & Waste Management, Road Construction, Agriculture, Environmental, Washing Systems, Mining, Port Material Handling and Conveyor Fabrication.

With 45 years' experience under our belts, we remain determined to help our customers succeed by working closely together from the machine design process right through to serial production. Our team is always on hand to troubleshoot, problem solve and collaborate to ensure our product offering is fit for your purpose.

WHY ENDLESS BELTS?

- Manufactured to DIN 22102 and covered by a 12 month warranty
- Hot vulcanised and branded with a unique quality identification number for full traceability
- Ready-to-fit for improved production efficiency, reduced inventory and easy re-ordering
- Produced in EP multi-ply flat & chevron, TOUGH FLEX®, Ripstop, Fabric Breaker and with specialised covers (oil/heat/fire/ frost resistant)
- Custom belts available with hot moulded siderails and cross-cleats including overband magnet belts
- Belts can also be supplied prepared (ready to splice) as cut lengths (ready to prepare) or as ZIP CLIP® replacement belts

CONSISTENT QUALITY

Across our three production facilities, Smiley Monroe belts are manufactured to the lastest DIN 22102 and ISO standards. We pride ourself on our consistent quality and offer a 12 month or 1000 hour warranty across all our belts. For the last ten years, our warranty rate has stayed below 0.2%. Across more than 20,000 belts annually, that is a stat we are pretty proud of.

GLOBAL SUPPLY

Being close to our customers is at the heart of what we do. With global production facilities across UK, USA and India, we offer our global customers speedy response rates, short lead times and just in time delivery. With a large variety of stock options available, we always have you covered regardless of your machine and your application.
